8 Reservations, force majeure, cancellation and other changes to the event

8.1 Reasons for changes to the event, obligation to inform and compensation

8.1.1 Unforeseen events, in particular cases of force majeure (for example natural disasters, war, terror, failure or massive disruptions in traffic and/or communication links, as well as special epidemic risks when contagious diseases occur) which make it impossible or irresponsible to hold the event as planned, entitle MFN to make the following changes to the event:

- to postpone, shorten and extend an event;
- to completely cancel its opening and
- to close an already started event temporarily, finally, in individual parts or in total.

Inability to provide sufficient operating elements, such as electricity, heating, etc., strikes and lockouts, will be equated to incidence of force majeure as long as they are not short-term in nature. There is no right to make the aforementioned changes to the event if MFN is responsible for the incident on which the change is based.

8.1.2 MFN must inform the exhibitor of such change measures immediately after the decision has been taken, unless MFN is also prevented from doing so by one of the circumstances mentioned. No claims for damages can be made against MFN, unless

- the change can be attributed to a grossly negligent or intentional breach of duties by MFN or its agents
- the change is due to MFN's or its agents' violation of an essential contractual obligation which, firstly, enables the contract to be fulfilled in accordance with the regulations. Furthermore, the exhibitor should also be consistently able to trust that this obligation shall be adhered to (this may be, for example, planning and preparation of the event in accordance with the regulations, the exhibitor being notified in good time and being fully informed, etc.).

8.2 Participation fee

8.2.1 In the case that an event is postponed for a reason specified in 8.1.1, the following applies: MFN will determine a replacement date no later than one month after the announcement of the postponement of an event. The exhibitor has the right to withdraw from the exhibitor contract within 14 days of receiving notification of the replacement date.

8.2.2 If an already started event is shortened, extended or closed (temporarily, permanently, in individual parts or in total) for one of the reasons specified in section 8.1.1, then the payments to be made by the exhibitor according to the exhibitor contract - the participation fee as well as any costs to be borne by the exhibitor - must be paid in full.
